POINTS

SESSION - 1 Madagascar

- First session (July 13, 2025) delivered exceptional quality and clarity.
- Over 400 participants from 12 countries across 3 continents
- Hybrid format: in-person, Zoom, and Facebook Live
- Madagascar launched the series with enthusiasm and thorough preparation
- The event left participants and the team with lasting joy and excitement

SESSION - 2 Benin

The second session, hosted by Benin, followed Madagascar's inspiring launch and opened with vibrant peace-themed music. Guided by young MC Ismaël, the event welcomed 304 participants from 13 countries across 3 continents. Keynote speaker Francel Sèna LOKO shared a heartfelt reflection on the book's impact, while singer Alpha Mim blended music with personal insights, inspiring the youth to sing along.

The final Global Book Club session, held on August 3, 2025, brought together 118 participants from 14 countries in a vibrant online gathering. Featuring music from Alpha Min, heartfelt reflections from author Fanny Laurent, and voices from nine different countries, the event celebrated both the journey of the book club and its future direction. With Wallis guiding the program and Morocco joining for the first time, the session was a fitting culmination to a global initiative dedicated to peace and inspiration.
